Are you interested in promoting restorative approaches in the justice, education and community sector across the island of Ireland?

This conference will:
Share and consider restorative models and experiences from justice, education and communities;
Discuss policy and practice underpinning restorative approaches;
Offer quality space for dialogue and discussion.

To book a place contact:
Linda Mullally
Restorative Practices Ireland
Phone: 00 353 1 4940030
Fax: 00353 1 4327329
Email: rp@restorativepracticesireland.ie
linda@twcdi.ie

Conference Fee:
€20, €30 or €50 per delegate, depending on funding arrangements.
Parallel Workshops
11.15am-1.00pm

Working in Schools:
Co-facilitated by Ms. Michelle Stowe, Restorative Practices Practitioner / Trainer and Consultant.
Ms. Claire Matthews, Restorative Practices Practitioner and Trainer, Advisor with the Professional Development Service for Teachers.

City / Community-wide approaches:
Co-facilitated by Ms. Emma Wheatley, National College of Ireland and Mr. Harry Maguire, Community Restorative Justice Ireland.

Adult Restorative Interventions:
Facilitated by Ms. Roisin Muldoon, Probation Board, N.I.

A Restorative Circle: Why would Victims be interested?
Facilitated by Ms. Barbara Walshe, Facing Forward.

"Becoming a Restorative Organisation: The Case of One in Four"
Facilitated by Maeve Lewis, Executive Director, One-in-Four.

Parallel Dialogue Space
2.00pm-3.30pm

Embedding and Quality-Assuring Restorative Practices:
Co-facilitated by Ms. Caitlin Lewis, Limerick Restorative Practices and Ms. Alice Chapman, Tutor, Queens University Belfast and Consultant.

Managing the Resistors:

The interface between Restorative Justice and Restorative Practices:
Co-facilitated by Ms. Emily Sheary, Restorative Justice in the Community, Tipperary and Ms. Amanda Wood, Deputy Governor, Hydebank Wood College, N.I.

Making Restorative Approaches “Business as Usual”:
Co-facilitated by Ms. Claire Casey, CDI Tallaght and Ms. Christine Hunter, Probation Board N.I.

The role of Emotional Intelligence in Restorative Approaches:
Co-facilitated by Ms. Martina Jordan, Consensus N.I. Restorative Solutions and Mr. Andy Bray, Le Chéile.