

Developing a National Organisation Consultation & Planning Workshop

Restorative Practices Ireland (RPI) was established in 2011 with a mission to promote and support the use of restorative approaches spanning all sectors of the community in Ireland both locally, regionally and nationally through the development of strategies designed to embed these practices across society including schools, neighbourhoods and services in the context of a life cycle approach.

RPI is now hosting a Consultation and Planning Workshop with stakeholders to discuss and plan the development of RPI as a sustainable national organisation for the support, propagation, and dissemination of Restorative Practices. If you are interested in promoting the spread of restorative approaches, you are cordially invited to attend this Workshop:

Tuesday 17th of January 2017

From 11am-1.30pm followed by lunch

At the Childhood Development Initiative

St. Mark's House, Cookstown Lane, Tallaght, Dublin 24

This workshop is free of charge and booking is essential.

To book your place, email Claire Casey — claire@twcdi.ie

Working Together Towards a Restorative Society

www.restorativepracticesireland.ie