

Restorative Practices Training Autumn 2017

The restorative approach is to prevent serious problems by being consistent in building and maintaining relationships and in resolving conflicts easily and effectively when they do arise. The Childhood Development Initiative (CDI) has been implementing a Restorative Practices (RP) Programme in Tallaght West since 2010. Further information is available at <http://www.twcdi.ie/our-programmes/restorative-practice>. In Autumn 2017, CDI is offering the following training in Restorative Practices.
